

Four Steps
an NGO for persons with special needs

in collaboration with

Seed Art Gallery
formerly known as Nitanjali art Gallery

is delighted to present Season 2 of

Four Steps was initially launched with Our Creative World, a summer workshop hosting performing arts and crafts to engage children with special needs. After two successful years, Four Steps was established as a Research, Training and Rehabilitation Centre in New Delhi.

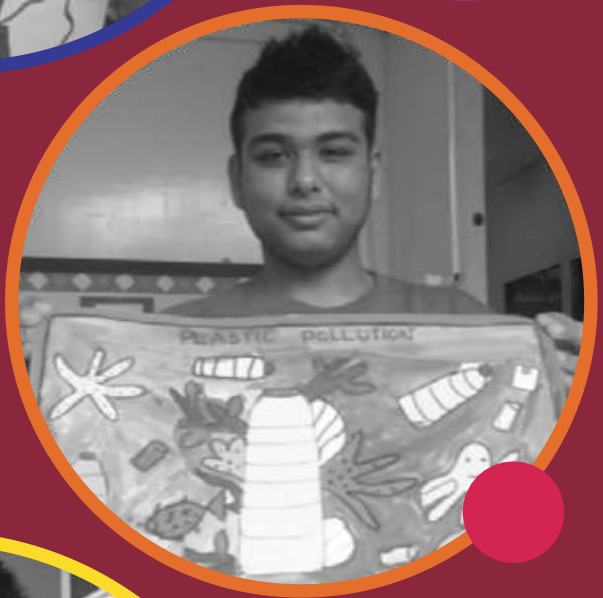

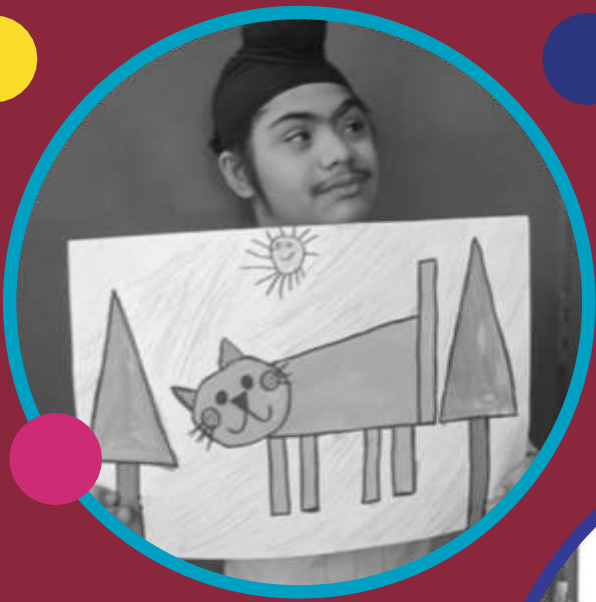

Love, care, patience and understanding are the four pillars that support Four Steps to stand up tall. Our objective is to enable differently-abled people to develop skills, nurture their potential and personal independence to the maximum.

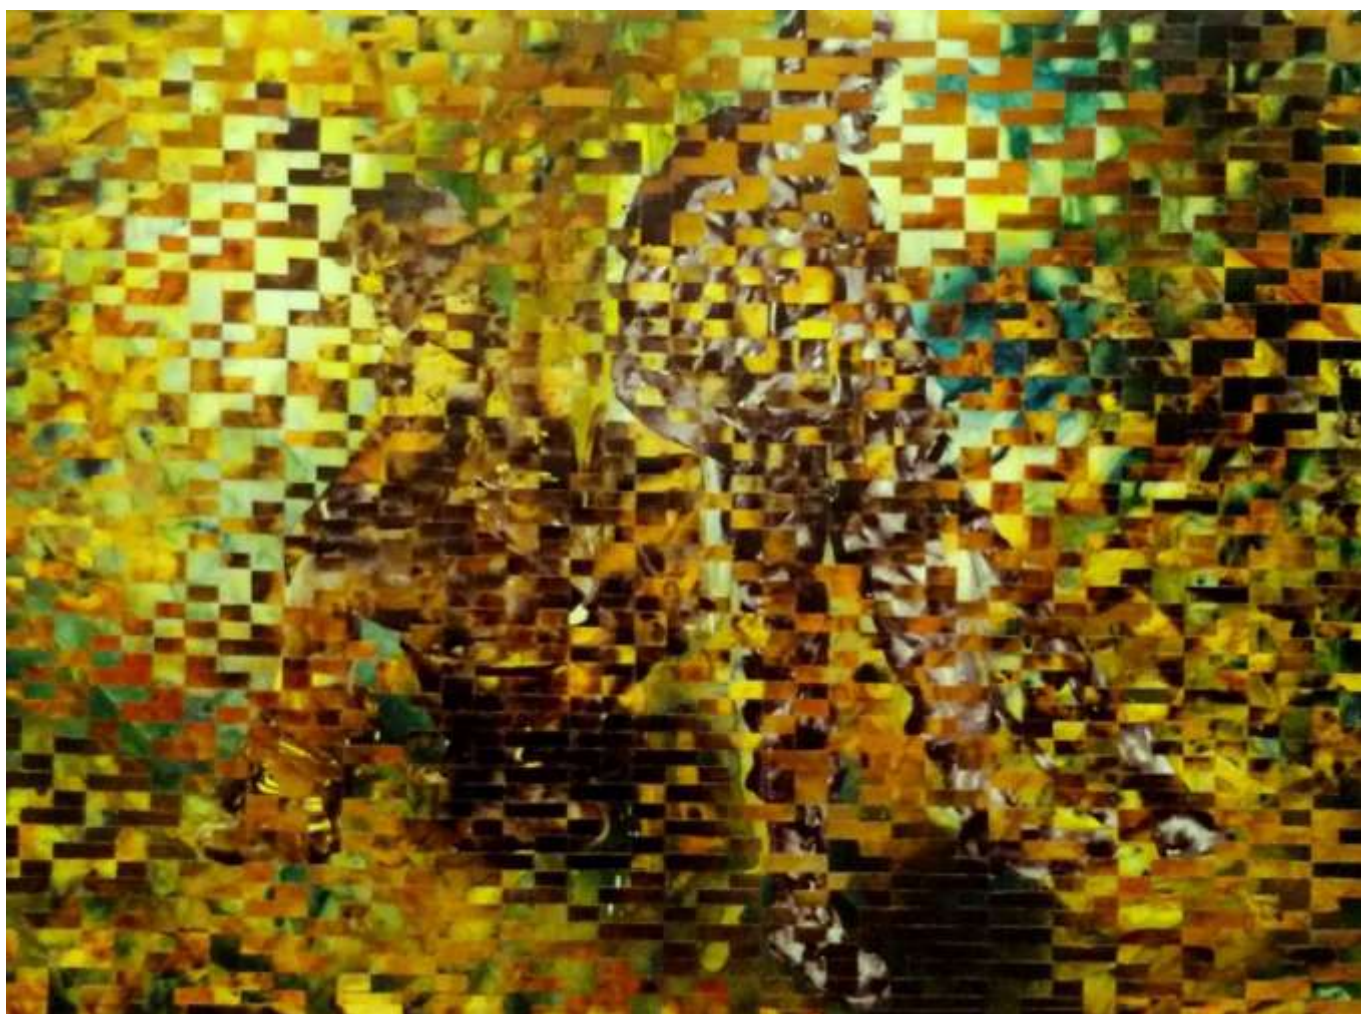

The beneficiaries of Four Steps are individuals with intellectual impairment, learning disability, ADHD, Autism and emotionally challenged persons. We also provide free services to some students from orphanages and the economically weaker section of society.

We need your support to continue maintaining our low ratio of one teacher to two students, individual education programs, rehabilitate and empower these individuals. We strive to boost their self-esteem and encourage them to embrace the motto “I CAN DO IT”.

Much has been achieved, yet it seems to be a drop in the ocean. The journey ahead is long and unattainable without the support of each and every member of society. Your generous support and proceeds from this art exhibition will go a long way to rehabilitate our students and further develop our speech, occupational and vocational centers.
